

PM Narendra Modi's Visit to Palestine, UAE & Oman

The outset of 2018 is proving to be significant in reorienting India's relations with countries in West Asia. While Prime Minister Narendra Modi is on his four-day visit to Palestine, UAE and Oman, External Affairs Minister Sushma Swaraj was attending the Janadriyah festival in Saudi Arabia as the guest of honour.

Last month, Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu visited India and now Iranian President Hasan Rouhani is all set to visit the country at the end of this week.

With a shift in India's approach from non-alignment to multi-alignment, India has been making attempts to strengthen relationship with the Arab world. Ahead of his visit, PM Modi emphasised the importance of this region and called it a "key priority in our external engagement".

Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Raveesh Kumar said the visit to the four countries was aimed at deepening "our multifaceted ties with the Gulf and West Asian region".
